In Cabo Delgado province, over 100 educational facilities were damaged or destroyed due to armed conflict during the reporting period. In addition, GCPEA identified sporadic reports of attacks on school teachers in Cabo Delgado province. In Manica and Sofala provinces, an armed opposition group threatened or attacked schools and schoolteachers in 2020.

Context

During the 2020-2021 reporting period, armed conflict escalated in Mozambique’s northern Cabo Delgado province, and continued in central Manica and Sofala provinces, where armed groups attacked civilians and engaged in hostilities with state armed forces, police, and private security contractors.

A non-state armed group, known locally as “Al-Shabab” or Al-Sunna wa Jama’a (ASWJ), which was reportedly affiliated with Islamic State (IS), began attacking civilians and civilian infrastructure in Cabo Delgado province in 2017 and increased its activity in 2019 and 2020, according to the UN and other international organizations. In 2020, Cabo Delgado experienced its deadliest year of conflict, with 1,600 fatalities, three times more than in 2019, according to ACLED. “Al-Shabab” violently captured the town of Mocímboa da Praia in August 2020; the government regained control of the town one year later. Human Rights Watch reported in 2021 that the armed group had abducted and used hundreds of women and children, using boys and sexually abusing or enslaving girls. Amnesty International reported that in efforts to combat insurgents, Mozambican security forces harassed, tortured, or killed civilians accused of cooperating with the non-state armed group, and that a government-contracted security company conducted aerial attacks which affected civilians.

In 2021, the UN reported that more than 744,900 people were internally displaced in Cabo Delgado, Nampula, Niassa, Sofala and Zambezia provinces due to insecurity, and that 1.6 million people required humanitarian assistance, around half of whom were children. Mozambique continued to experience extreme weather events which further compounded the humanitarian situation.

In addition, the Renamo Military Junta, a splinter group from the Renamo armed opposition group, continued to perpetrate attacks on civilians in 2020, despite a peace agreement between the government and Renamo in 2019, according to Human Rights Watch and international media. The International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies reported that, at the end of 2020, the Renamo Military Junta had closed its bases in Sofala and that the leader had announced a ceasefire.

In 2021 alone, the government reported that over 120,000 students had been affected by violence in Cabo Delgado province. In March 2021, education authorities in Cabo Delgado announced that, as a result of violent attacks, 214 schools were non-operational and would remain closed during the academic year. In October 2020, school closures due to armed violence reportedly affected around 5,000 students and 131 teachers in Manica province. In addition to conflict, education in northern and central Mozambique was affected by both Covid-19 and natural disasters during the reporting period. The government closed schools in March 2020 due to the pandemic; schools reopened in March 2021.

Mozambique was not profiled in Education under Attack 2020 so no comparison can be made with previous reporting periods.

Attacks on schools

In the 2020-2021 reporting period, GCPEA identified reports of over 100 incidents in which schools were damaged or destroyed in Mozambique, primarily in Cabo Delgado province. GCPEA identified two reported incidents of attack on schools in Cabo Delgado in 2019 and one incident in 2018.

In 2020, GCPEA identified at least 19 reported incidents of attacks on schools. In addition, in 2020, the government began reporting data on the number of schools damaged and destroyed since the beginning of the conflict; in February 2020, the governor of Cabo Delgado province reported that 76 schools had been destroyed, affecting 16,760 students.
and 285 teachers, although GCPEA could not determine how many of these incidents occurred in 2020. In most incidents of attacks on schools identified by GCPEA, attackers either alleged or verified to be part of the “Al-Shabab” armed group set fire to schools. Furthermore, Amnesty International reported in February 2021 that private security forces, working for the Mozambican government and using armed helicopters, had indiscriminately attacked civilian infrastructure between March and June 2020, including schools and hospitals, according to interviews conducted on the ground. Examples of reported attacks included:

- On January 29, 2020, gunmen allegedly burned four schools, including the Agrarian Institute of Bilibiza, in Bilibiza, Quissanga district, Cabo Delgado province, according to Club of Mozambique, Reuters, and Deutsche Welle. While 11 students and seven teachers were present at the Agrarian Institute at the time of attack, none were harmed. The Institute, which served 400 students, was run by the Agha Khan Foundation and was the only technical high school in Cabo Delgado.

- Amnesty International reported that on March 25, 2020, an armed group attacked Quissanga city, Quissanga district, Cabo Delgado province. The group burned a school, along with at least 386 other structures.

- Amnesty International and All Africa media reported that an armed group attacked Macomia town, Macomia district, Cabo Delgado province, on May 28, 2020. All Africa reported that the primary and technical schools were burned down, and an eyewitness informed Amnesty International that an unspecified number of schools were destroyed, and that all schools in the town were closed due to Covid-19 and the conflict.

- Club of Mozambique reported that on June 27, 2020, a school was burned during armed clashes in Mocimboa da Praia, Cabo Delgado province. Amnesty International also reported that an armed group attacked Mocimboa da Praia on June 27, 2020, and targeted government infrastructure.

According to UN reporting, at least 220 schools were attacked in Cabo Delgado by early 2021, although it remained unclear whether all these attacks occurred in the reporting period. Similarly, the Cabo Delgado Provincial Department of Education reported in March 2021 that 46 schools, or a total of 104 classrooms, had been destroyed due to attacks. Later, in April 2021, the government, as cited in local media, reported that 375 schools had been destroyed due to conflict. As these reports may have contained incidents from earlier reporting periods or could have included other types of damage during conflict such as being used as IDP shelter, they were not included in the total number of attacks. Given the escalation of conflict in 2020, however, it is likely that many attacks took place during the reporting period. In addition, in Manica and Sofala provinces, Deutsche Welle reported that in January 2020, a member of the Renamo Military Junta threatened to attack the education system when students resumed school after vacation in February 2020. The militia member made the threat in retaliation against government forces, claiming that Mozambique Defence and Security Forces had abducted his family in December 2019.

GCPEA did not identify any incident reports of attacks on schools in 2021.

Attacks on school students, teachers, and other education personnel

In 2020-2021, GCPEA identified occasional attacks on school students, teachers, and other education personnel, in both Sofala and Cabo Delgado provinces. In some instances, armed groups attacked teachers because of their association with the government.

In 2020, Mozambique’s National Teachers’ Organization reported that more than 750 teachers from primary and secondary schools in Cabo Delgado province had fled from their posts to Pemba, the capital of Cabo Delgado, to avoid attacks by armed groups. The organization did not state whether the teachers had received direct threats or were fleeing general insecurity. Education authorities in the province of Cabo Delgado reported in March 2021 that seven teachers had been killed and, as of June 2021, 2,074 had been displaced as a result of terrorist attacks since the conflict began, likely due to generalized violence.

In 2020, GCPEA collected two incidents of attacks on teachers:

- Moçambique Media Online reported that on June 14, 2020, the body of the director of Marrongamissi II Primary School was found in Chiziziza town, Búzi district, Sofala province. The report claimed that the Renamo Military Junta had abducted the teacher in May 2020.
Local media sources reported that on either October 31 or November 1, 2020, members of a non-state armed group killed a school teacher in Muidumbe district. The teacher had recently escaped a surge of violence in the area, according to the reports. The article also noted that the Matambalale Primary school where he worked had been attacked on an unspecified date.\textsuperscript{1082}

In 2021, GCPEA identified anecdotal evidence that teachers had received threats of violence in Cabo Delgado. For example, in July 2021, displaced teachers from Macomia district, Cabo Delgado province, voiced concerns about their safety and protested against government orders to return to school. Teachers told Deutsche Welle that they could not work effectively while “living in fear of being beheaded” and that they would be exposed like “shields of war.”\textsuperscript{1083} The Ministry of Education reported that eight teachers had been killed in Cabo Delgado province within the context of armed conflict in 2021, although GCPEA was unable to verify whether these deaths were in relation to their status as educators.\textsuperscript{1084}

Attacks on higher education

During the 2020-2021 reporting period, GCPEA identified sporadic reports of attacks on higher education. General insecurity in Cabo Delgado province limited the academic activities of higher education students and staff during the reporting period according to World University News in October 2020, although armed groups reportedly had not targeted university students and academics at the time of writing.\textsuperscript{1085}

In 2020, GCPEA received a report that a teacher training college in Bilibiza, Quissanga district, Cabo Delgado province, was attacked on January 29, 2020.\textsuperscript{1086} According to Reuters, an armed group torched the college’s building, but no students or staff were harmed.\textsuperscript{1087}

At the time of writing GCPEA had not identified any attacks on higher education in 2021.
